White-glove services

Our team of event specialists runs everything, from setup and rehearsals to the live show and follow-up. Your people just show up and speak.

01 BEFORE

Pre-event

- 1 planning call and run of show
- Zoom setup, registration, branding
- 2 tech checks with your speakers
- 1 full rehearsal before the day

02 DURING

In-event

- Producer on call 30 minutes before start
- Slides, polls, Q&A and breakouts
- Live tech help for your speakers
- Backstage chat with your team

03 AFTER

Post-event

- Cloud recording and VOD link
- Attendance and registration report
- Q&A and poll results
- Follow-up email to attendees

In-event production support

One of our producers runs the live event alongside your team. You stay close to the content. We take the live production so nothing slips on the day.

Pre-event

- A short planning call and run of show
- A look at your Zoom setup with your team
- Speaker checks if you want them

In-event

- One of our producers on the live show with your team
- Slides, polls, Q&A and breakouts
- Live tech help for your speakers
- Backstage chat with your team

03 AFTER

Post-event

- Cloud recording and VOD link, if you want them
- Attendance and poll reports
- A quick recap after the show

Standby support

You run the event, and we're on call whenever you need us. An operator from our team is on WhatsApp and in a backstage chat, watching with you.

Pre-event

- A short call on your run of show
- How to reach us on the day
- A look at your Zoom setup, if you want one

In-event

- An operator on WhatsApp and chat
- Ready if you want a hand with slides, polls or speakers
- The 24/7 hotline, if anything comes up

03 AFTER

Post-event

- A quick recap if you want one
- Notes on what to try next time
- A path to training or full production, if you ask

What we can produce

These packages cover the events you already run on Zoom. Tell us which one you have coming up.

Company all-hands

1,000+ people tuning in, management on stage, and it all has to run smoothly. Usually 1 hour.

Marketing webinar

You need sign-ups, a polished show, and leads you can follow up. Up to 2 hours.

Online conference

Three hours of back-to-back speakers and no dead air in between.

Zoom licenses not included.

Book your production support
